President's Letter

Happy spring!

I have spent a lot of time at the loom this month. What do you listen to while you weave? I am all over the place. While winding a warp, and I can listen to an audiobook. If I am dressing the loom for plain weave, I can get away with continuing to listen to the audiobook. Anything more complicated and I have to concentrate on what I'm doing so I switch to music. My Spotify playlist consists of The three C's., Christian, Country and Classical. However, I have recently added Jazz. And of course there is my favorite, the ancient drums and flutes. Music definitely sets the tone for my creativity.

Happy weaving and I hope to see everyone at April Guild meeting.

Monthly Weaving Tip

From the book "Weaver's Wisdom: 250 Aids to Happier Weaving"

Use a stick shuttle to hold down a treadle when three feet are needed.

New Study Group

I am very excited about all the interest in the Beginning Weaver Study Group!!! I would like to have the first meeting at my house at the end of May. (The exact date has not yet been determined.) The plan will be to weave a scarf the first meeting. I will have several looms warped and ready to go. This will give you an opportunity to get the basic techniques down. From there, we will work backwards: different techniques for warping a loom, how to read a draft and so on and so on. If this sounds some like something you would be interested in, please let me know.

April 12th Program with Bonnie Zimmer- A Fiber Artist's Journey

Bonnie's presentation is entitled "Wonder Under My Feet" and will be an overview of her evolution as a fiber artist. Retired after teaching art at all levels for over 40 years, Zimmer is now a full time artist living near Rensselaer, IN. giving occasional guest artist presentations and workshops. Grounded by her BFA in textiles from Indiana University (1973), she uses fiber techniques and natural and found materials to create vessels, sculptures, and installations that explore our relationship with nature.

In addition, Zimmer enjoys creating nature inspired jewelry and eco-printed clothing she sells at regional art fairs including Interwoven Expressions, Chesterton Art Fair, Journeyman's Artisan Market, and more.

Statement: "Mining my rural surroundings for materials and inspiration, I juxtapose beloved items from nature with discarded, human-made objects that cross my path. I am especially drawn to rusty metal objects beginning to return to the earth. Working intuitively, my materials guide me in my process, techniques, and structures. I strive to arrive at a perfect, visual equilibrium of form while retaining the inherent spirit of each item."

Quote: Think of my work as a visual metaphor for humans and nature coexisting in a state of balance and reciprocity with each taking care of the other...

Beaded Wrap Bracelet Workshop April 12th from 1-4 pm

Bonnie's workshop will guide participants in the basics of creating a "Beaded Wrap Bracelet" in which each participant will complete a beautiful single wrap bracelet (goes around the wrist once) but come away with a detailed handout of information and skills to create multi-wrap, complex bracelets on their own following. She will provide all materials including: a metal button for each participant, several color and size choices of round leather 1.5 to 2mm (warp/edging of bracelet), wide range of beads, special easy thread beading needle, Fireline, glue, binder clip and wooden jig holding an alligator clip to fit in a clip board (provided by most participants) to create a loom of sorts; instructions for creating your own custom beading "loom" that I use.

Participants are invited to bring the following, but optional since Bonnie will have everything except enough clip boards for all: small sharp scissors (She will have several to share) clipboard if they have one (don't go buy one). Bonnie will have several to loan but not enough for a large group special button: I will provide a nice selection of buttons 1/2" to 1" wide, but if they have a shank button or unique 2-hole button with larger holes to accommodate 1.5 - 2mm leather, they would like to bring for their clasp, feel free.

Cost: $15 at the time of the workshop
